

with shoud have ben inserted here
the 22th Jan. 1642.

Die Luna, 18 Septemb.

1643.

Whereas Thomas Andrews, John Fowke, Richard Chambers, William Barkley, Aldermen of the City of London; Maurice Thompson, Francis Allen, James Russell, and Stephen Estwick, Merchants, are Ordained and Constituted to be Collectors and Commissioners, enabled to receive all such summes of Money as should bee paid for Customes, or advanced by way of Loan, or otherwise for and in respect of Goods and Merchandize, etc.

exported out of, and imported into the Port of London, and all other Ports within the Realm of England, Dominion of Wales, and Towne of Barwick, the said Commissioners receiuing what they ought to receiue, by vertue of the severall Ordinances of both Houses of Parliament already past, concerning them, are contented to aduance by way of Loan, thirty thousand pounds, towards supply of the pressing Necessities of the State:

It is thereupon ordained by the Lords and Commons in Parliament, That the said Commissioners shall repay unto themselves by way of defalcation, out of the one halfe of the said Receipts, the foresaid summe of thirty thousand pounds, with Interest for the same, after the rate of eight pound per cent. for a yeare, at the end of six Moneths next to bee elapsed and expired;

expired; And for the further encouragement and security of the said Commissioners, It is likewise Ordained by the said Lords and Commons, that the said Commissioners shall continue in the said employment untill the five & twentieth of March one thousand six hundred forty five, And shall not then be displaced nor dismissed from the said employment, without Order of both Houses of Parliament; nor untill they be re-imbursed the said thirty thousand pounds, with Interest as aforesaid, and all other sums which shall bee due unto them. And it is likewise Ordained; that aswell the Ordinance concerning the Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage, with such alterations as the said Lords and Commons shall think fit; As also the other severall Ordinances herein mentioned, in all other things, shall stand and continue in full full force, and power, to all intents and purposes, during all the time aforesaid.

---

23 Martii 1643.

O Rdered by the Commons assembled in Parliament that this Ordinance be forthwith printed and published,

H. Elsynge Cler. Parl. D. Com.

---

LONDON,

Printed for Laurance Blacklock, at Temple Barre, 1644.